

Biography - Annette Coker, Member at Large

Annette Coker is a local realtor who introduces new neighbors to all the benefits of North Briarcliff and the greater Atlanta metro. She enjoys being actively involved in the neighborhood, supports Hawthorne Elementary School. She is also a member of the Briarmoor pool where her family has been members of the school and swim team. Annette is married and has two boys who both grew up in our neighborhood and attended Hawthorne Elementary School and Lakeside High School. When Annette is not showing people their homes, you can catch her walking her dog in the Mary Scott Nature Park.
