

Biography – Richard Casner, Digital Communications

Richard Casner is currently the Treasure for the North Briarcliff Civic Association (NBCA). His role as a board member is to provide minutes and records for all meetings held by the board and to communicate with both board members and off-board members for NBCA meetings. Richard has been a member of the NBCA since 2012 and a member of the board since January 2013.

Richard Casner is currently Managing Director of Retail and eCommerce Strategy for UPS where he has worked since April 2001. Richard first arrived in Atlanta in 2003 and has been at his current residence in North Briarcliff since 2008. He lives there with his wife, daughter and one playful dog.